

OVERVIEW

Evidence strongly suggests that US Senator JOHN S. MCCAIN III is the missing link to the notorious "JUARITO" (aka "SINALOA") CARTEL.

When spoken in local Sonoran dialect, "JUARITO" sounds very similar to "GUERITO" - slang Spanish for "white blonde". In Yuma (home of the US Naval Combat Aviation "Proving Grounds"), the term "GUERITO" generally carries the strong implication of "Navy Bros from San Diego."

Significant portions of overall drug and human trafficking in the United States (today) originate with this cartel and it's booming operations in southern Arizona.

QUICK BIO

John S. McCain III was born and raised in the Panama Canal Zone in the early 1930's. Yet he publicly pretends not to know Spanish. He was born into a family considered by most to be "US Navy Royalty." Throughout his formative years, he had a long and well-documented track record of dishonesty, substance abuse, and insubordination. He also has a long track record of extreme disloyalty and unchallenged impunity.

As a young pilot, he would routinely take US military aircraft on "weekend joyrides" to visit his "lady friends" in other states. He routinely displayed wanton disregard for established protocols and taxpayer resources. During flight training, he crashed (3) separate US military aircraft - costing US taxpayers untold tens of millions in damages and repairs.

He was then deployed to the USS Forrestal - where he proceeded to intentionally detonate explosive ordinance on the main deck - killing hundreds of his fellow sailors. From that point on, the entire story of his military career is falsified propaganda that should be forcefully and publicly re-examined as soon as possible.
